1. [REDACTED] Called Marty Konrad, in the office of Representative William Keating (R., Ohio), and advised her that we had no information concerning the present whereabouts [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who is missing and believed living in Mexico. She said that she would continue her efforts through the State Bureau of Consular Affairs. She furnished information concerning the background of [REDACTED] and the unusual circumstances of his disappearance. (See Memorandum for Chief, NARCOG.) Agency files revealed a reference to [REDACTED] in 1972 indicating his possible involvement in drug traffic [REDACTED] Since the information was very indefinite and since it was made known to State by [REDACTED], Mr. Bolten, NARCOG, and I agreed that no mention be made to Konrad.

2. [REDACTED] Lawrence Houston and I accompanied [REDACTED] to a second session with the Intelligence Operations Subcommittee of Senate Appropriations on the Ellsberg case. After the hearing we were given three copies of the transcript of yesterday's hearing; two copies of which we are to correct and return to the Subcommittee by Monday afternoon.

Following this morning's hearing, I contacted Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee; Gordon Nease, Senate Armed Services Committee staff; Herbert Roback, House Government Operations Committee staff; and General Earl Anderson, Acting Commandant of the Marine Corps, and briefed them on the thrust of the session including the concern which Mr. Helms' expressed when he transmitted the second Ellsberg profile to the White House. I also attempted to contact Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, but he was on the House floor and did not return my call.
